ERASMUS+ KA1 · TEACHER TRAINING COURSE

Greek Language, History and Culture through ICT

6 Days • Athens, Greece • OID: E10020547

About the course

Greek is one of the most ancient languages and one of great importance: its texts carry timeless ideas such as democracy, humanism and justice, and today's Greek is the evolution of the language Homer and Pericles spoke. Athens, the cradle of democracy and classical civilisation, is the ideal place to discover it.

The course combines language learning with cultural awareness: lectures on ancient, Byzantine, modern and contemporary Greek history and civilisation, and language practice in different communicative situations.
