ERASMUS+ KA1 · TEACHER TRAINING COURSE

Inclusive Education through Arts

6 Days • Athens, Greece • OID: E10020547

About the course

People learn in different ways, so it is important to combine different personal styles and methodological approaches to reach as many learners as possible. We learn from our own experience, from others, from the group and through action.

Building on the principles of inclusive education and an inclusive school culture, the course shows how art, music, games, psychodrama and sociodrama engage students' creativity and support diversity, inclusion and students' personal and social skills.
