ERASMUS+ KA1 · TEACHER TRAINING COURSE

Reducing Early School Leaving

6 Days • Athens, Greece • OID: E10020547

About the course

Every year in Europe, thousands of young people leave school without completing their education, which can lead to professional and social exclusion. The course highlights the school's role in preventing and treating dropout, and in students' positive development and mental health.

It introduces preventive actions and early, holistic interventions at school, individual and family level, from building resilient school communities and personalised counselling to early prevention programmes and art-based activities that keep students engaged.
