ERASMUS+ KA1 · TEACHER TRAINING COURSE

The Social Media Classroom: Social Media & AI for Teaching

5 Days • Athens, Greece • OID: E10020547

About the course

Social media are part of everyday life for most learners and, used well, they can become powerful learning tools. This course shows teachers how to use blogs, wikis, social networks, video and podcasts to build a more collaborative classroom, and how generative AI can help them create engaging content.

Through lectures and practical workshops, participants also learn to manage digital classes, deal with cyberbullying and recognise misinformation and AI-generated content.
