ERASMUS+ KA1 · TEACHER TRAINING COURSE

Child Sexual Abuse

7 Days • Heraklion, Crete • OID: E10020547

About the course

The Council of Europe warns that one in five children will fall victim to sexual violence. To prevent it, schools need a systematic approach that acts on several levels: teacher awareness, counselling, and cooperation with parents and students.

Built on the Council of Europe's "One in Five" campaign, the Lanzarote Convention and European preventive actions, the course helps educators deal with this serious and delicate issue.
